Introduction

Our school uniform shows that pupils belong to our community and should be worn with pride. School uniform is recommended for pupils in Reception, Key Stages 1-4. Pupils in Key Stage 5 are expected to wear school uniform and the Post-16 lanyard.

Purpose

To provide a consistent and flexible approach to our school uniform which reflects the school's ethos of high standards and promotes good behaviour and equality. Items with the Lime Academy Hornbeam logo, i.e., Navy blue jumper / sweatshirt / cardigan or fleece can be purchased online from My Clothing (website: myclothing.com.) All other items can be brought in clothes departments of larger supermarkets or department stores, e.g. Asda, Tesco, Sainsburys, Marks and Spencer. By choosing generic trousers, skirts and polo shirts we have ensured a reasonable price for all items.

Aims

- That pupils, where possible and practical, dress with the school's identity, promoting the ethos and values of the school
- To ensure a smart and practical uniform, which is affordable
- That our uniform reflects our standards, ensuring respect and safety
- That the uniform enables all pupils to be identified as a part of the Lime Academy Hornbeam Trust and treated equally
- That if a learner finds it a challenge to wear uniform linked to need, reasonable adjustments can be made. We will work closely with parents/carers to ensure uniform is not a barrier to attendance.
